

Minnesota Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (MAFCS) Helping Undergraduate and Graduate Students (HUGS) Policy

As a HUGS Recipient, you will receive the following:

- Partial monetary assistance (as available) for attending state and national family and consumer sciences conferences, to be reimbursed after the event
- Scholarship, leadership, and community service involvement opportunities
- Mentoring from experienced professionals
- Job opening information
- Resources, knowledge, and networking
- Resume building experience

As a HUGS recipient, you must complete the following requirements:

- Full-time undergraduate or graduate student
- Preprofessional/Graduate Student (P/GS) member of the American and Minnesota Associations of Family and Consumer Sciences in good standing (current paid membership of $60/year)
- Participate actively in the funded event by attending all scheduled sessions, talking with other attendees, and showing interest and enthusiasm
- Write a brief article for the newsletter after the event and submit to Rachel Pederson at rachelpederson@charter.net
- Send an appropriate note of thanks

HUGS money will be awarded based on the following variables:

- Length of attendance at the conference/event
Students who attend all days/sessions of a conference/event will be given priority.
- Other financial contributions from outside sources (i.e. university contributions, scholarships, etc.)
Students who have not received contributions from outside sources will be given priority.
- Funds available
All HUGS awards are subject to the amount of total funds available for distribution.
